EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Karin Butchko on February 24, 2006.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 1, line 5, between "distribution of" and "light", remove "the".

In claim 1, line 6, remove "a reference histogram," and replace with --a reference histogram to detect an obstruction in a path of the distribution of light received by the light sensor,--.

In claim 10, line 8, between "distribution of" and "light", remove "the".

In claim 15, line 2, replace "on" with --by--.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

With respect to claims 1, prior art fails to teach or reasonably suggest an obstruction detector having a circuit that analyzes a distribution of light received by a light sensor, wherein the distribution of light defines a histogram of gray levels of a plurality of imaging elements, and the circuit compares the histogram of gray levels of the distribution of light received by the light sensor to a reference histogram to detect an obstruction in a path of the distribution of light received by the light sensor, and the circuit updates the reference histogram, in addition to the other limitations of the claim.

With respect to claim 10, prior art fails to teach or reasonably suggest an automobile part having a circuit that analyzes a distribution of light received by a light sensor, wherein the distribution of light defines a histogram of gray levels of a plurality of imaging elements, the circuit compares the histogram of gray levels of the distribution of light received by the light sensor to a reference histogram, and the circuit updates the reference histogram, in addition to the other limitations of the claim.

With respect to claim 12, prior art fails to teach or reasonably suggest a method of detecting an obstruction in a path of an openable member comprising the step of detecting light along a closing line of the openable member with a light sensor to form a distribution of light, wherein the light sensor has a plurality of imaging elements and the distribution of light defines a histogram of gray levels of the plurality of imaging elements and comparing the histogram of gray levels of distribution of light along the closing line with a reference histogram, in addition to the other limitations of the claim.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Watson, III (US 4,868,871) discloses an image tracker that analyzes a distribution of light received by a light sensor, wherein the distribution of light defines a histogram of gray levels of a plurality of imaging elements, comparing the histogram of gray levels of the distribution of light received by the sensor to a reference histogram and updating the histogram. Watson, III fails to disclose the image tracker used in detecting an obstruction in a path of the distribution of light received by the light sensor or in a path of an openable member. Watson, III further fails to disclose the image tracker used in an automobile vehicle part.
